

Approval of Report

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1100 AM Moscow 13 December 1952-1

(Excerpts) In: Supreme Soviet of the USSR, having heard and discussed the report of the chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, G. K. Purishchev, entitled "The Contemporary International Situation and Foreign Policy of the Soviet Union" resolved:

To approve the foreign policy of the Soviet Government based on a further consolidation of peace and friendship among nations on the basis of Lenin's principles of peaceful coexistence - and

To approve the measures carried out by the Soviet Government in furthering the international cause of revolutionary peace and in consolidating international peace. The moral-political power of the peace-loving forces over the imperialist forces which, pulled and pulled into the road of armament and war opens favorable prospects for the consolidation of international safety and the realization of Lenin's principles of peaceful coexistence of nations.

The USSR Supreme Soviet approves the approbation of the following and the relevant parliamentary, social organizations and public bodies the principles of conduct of the Soviet Foreign Policy in the field of consolidation of the alliance in the Caribbean. In 1951, the USSR - of its own accord, independently and free from Soviet influence, has taken a number of measures and for the first time in the history of the Soviet Union has taken a number of outstanding international, political, economic and cultural measures in the Caribbean and Central America.